1. gather your materials
2. make dots of a couple diff. colors around the canvas
3. mosh the colors around themselves (so you can see the brush strokes)
4. scatter something shiny (foil?)
5. add in dashes of other colors
6. take a bright/high-contrast color + add some dashes of ::drama:: to "bounce the eye"
7. build circular motions around some colors + set!
8. once dry, flatten under some hefty cook books overnight
